

“This is true – we must BE before we can DO, and we can DO only to the extent which we ARE, and what we ARE depends upon what we THINK. The world within is governed by the mind. When we discover this world, we shall find the solution for every problem, the cause for every effect and since we control the world within, all laws of power and possession are also within our control.”

Charles Haanel